

ASK THE DOCS

About Prenatal Oral Health

To improve oral health outcomes for moms and babies, this virtual series addresses common questions about oral health care during pregnancy. It is presented by the Texas Department of State Health Services – Oral Health Improvement Program (OHIP) in partnership with the Children’s Oral Health Coalition led by Cook Children’s. It is for dentists, ob-gyns, other medical providers, dental hygienists, and nurses.

Sessions feature local experts to guide meaningful conversation, provide accurate information, discuss barriers to care, and identify opportunities for care coordination.
